: ORDER OF DISMISSAL ON CONSENT

ANDREW J. PECK, United States Magistrate Judge:

The parties having informed the Court that they have reached a settlement agreement in principle and are finalizing settlement documents (see attached letters), IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT this action is dismissed with prejudice and without costs, provided, however, that any party may reinstate the action within 15 days hereof if the settlement is not fully effectuated. Any pending motions are to be terminated as moot.

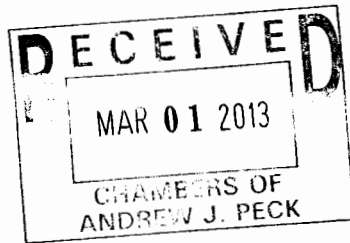

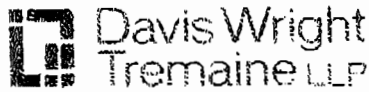

SO ORDERED.

Re: Lang, et al., v. Morris, Civil Case No. 11-cv-0882;
Settlement Conference March 4, 2013, 2:30 pm.

Your Honor:

With respect to the above captioned case, the parties wish to inform the Court that they have reached a settlement agreement on all issues. Accordingly the defendant withdraws her objection to taking the March 4 settlement conference off calendar.

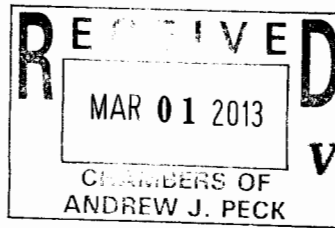

We would like to thank your Honor and your staff for your patience and assistance in this matter.

Very truly yours

Re: LANG, ET ALIA V. MORRIS
11 CIV. 8821 (BSJ)(AJP)
Settlement Conference with Judge Peck: March 4, 2013, 2:30 pm
Trial Date: April 8, 2013

Your Honor:

I wrote on Monday, February 25th that the parties in the above-mentioned case have reached a provisional agreement to settle the case. The parties have worked assiduously since then, and the settlement agreement is nearly completed, except for the specific language of three paragraphs and an exhibit. There is no deep division on any portion; in the words of defense counsel Marcia Paul, we are at the "wordsmithing" stage. In view of the fact that plaintiff's counsel is in California, it would be a tremendous waste of resources to interrupt the finalization of the agreement to travel cross-country.

I therefore request that the current settlement conference date be vacated, with the chance to have another settlement conference before trial, if necessary, although I feel confident that will not be necessary. All counsel are being copied on this letter.

Very truly yours,
